Agricultural reforms

3819. SHRIMATI JAY AP RAD A NAHATA:
SHRI AMAR SINGH:

Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to bring about agricultural reforms;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) by when it is likely to be implemented?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SHRIPAD YESSO NAIK): (a) to (c) The Government of India is implementing various Central and Centrally Sponsored Schemes for development of agriculture and allied activities. The Government has announced National Agriculture Policy on 28th July, 2000 which seeks to actualise the vast untapped growth potential of Indian agriculture, strengthen rural infrastructure to support faster agricultural development, promote value addition, accelerate the growth of agro business, create employment in rural areas, secure a fair standard of living for the farmers and agricultural workers, discourage migration to urban areas and face the challenges arising out of economic liberalization and globalisation. The Government has already taken several fiscal, financial, programmatic and administrative measures for welfare of farmers and development of agriculture.
